Stockholm, January 21.

THE States of this Kingdom are to assemble on the 28th of next Month, and Field-Marshal Count de Ducker, who was to have set out some Days ago to visit the Troops quartered in the several Provinces, has deferred that Service till the States Assembly is over. Orders have been sent to the Officers Commanding those Troops to send hither exact Returns of the effective Men and Horses in their respective Corps. Although Count Horn, one of the Senators of this Kingdom, may by some Persons have been hitherto thought a Favourer of the Duke of Holstein's Pretensions, yet it is remarked that he has kept no private Conferences at his House for some Months past; and may therefore probably be supposed to have no longer a Design of concerning himself with publick Affairs; and 'tis even said that he purposes to retire next Spring into the Country.

Extract of a Letter from M. de Rambion of Feb. 2. from Valon.

'The new Line from Langeac to Puy, and from 'thence to the Rhone above Tournon, must needs 'be agreeable to you, seeing that double Precaution 'puts not only Lyons in Safety, but the whole 'Kingdom on that Side; nevertheless, there re-'mains not the least Suspicion with us relating to 'the Distemper on this side of our Line from 'Rovergue to Auvergne. For five Days past no 'Person has fallen sick or died of the Contagion at 'Alaix; the Distemper seems to abate every where, 'at St. Genaix excepted, where it has revived 'through Pillage brought thither by wicked Peo-'ple who had plundered some infected Houses shut 'up in the Country. Four Persons died last Week 'of the Contagion at the Village of Laurac not far 'from our Line.

Brussels, Feb. 14. 'The Deputies of the States 'of Flanders are still here, not having been yet 'able to terminate their Differences with those 'who farm the Customs of their Province, not 'even though the Marquess de Prié has interposed 'his good Offices to establish good Agreement be-'tween the Members of the Flemish States, whose 'late Misunderstandings has occasioned great Ex-'pences, and diminished publick Credit. On the 'nth Instant, the Marquess de Prié gave a splen-'did Supper to a great Number of Persons of Di-'stinction, whom afterwards he caused to be en-'tertained with a publick Ball and Masquerade, at 'which were assembled above 1500 Masks, with-'out reckoning near 500 more who were refused 'for want of Room. The Mareschal Vehlen, the 'Prince de Rubempré, the Count de Maldeghen, 'and several other Persons of Distinction being 'invited to the Wedding of the young Princess 'd'Avergne, by the Dutchess Dowager of Arem-'berg, who on that Occasion performs the Ceremo-'nial Honours, are set out for Bergen-op-zoom, and 'the fine Coaches and Liveries were also sent thi-'ther Yesterday. Letters from Antwerp say, that 'the Prince of Sultzbach arrived there on the 12th 'in the Evening, and set out the next Morning for 'Bergen-op zoom. It is said that two of the States 'Deputies are to assist at this Wedding, in Quality 'of Governours to the young Princess. Major Ge-'neral Devenish was married some Days ago to 'a Niece of the Baroness de Pate. Advices 'from Liege say, that so many Robbers, under seve-'ral Disguises have got together in that Place, that 'sixty were taken up in one Night by Order of the 'Magistrates; that the Prisons are almost filled with 'them; and that a constant Patroll is kept in the 'City all Night, to prevent Murders and Robbe-'ries, which Crimes have lately been there fre-'quently committed.

Hague, Feb. 17. 'The States of Holland conti-'nue sitting, but have not yet put in Execution 'their Resolution for selling their Domains, and 'continuing the Hundredth and Half Hundredth 'Penny Tax. Some Cities still persist in their Ex-'postions against selling those Domains, and also 'would have a new Regulation made of the above-'mentioned Tax. A Deputation from Guelder-'land is arrived here, touching some Points of 'the Military State for the ensuing Year, and have 'already had some Conferences with the Council 'of State. The Admiralties have attended for 'some Days past, and are busy, in Concert with 'the Deputies of the States General, and those of 'Holland, in examining the Project proposed by 'the Zealanders for curbing the Algerines.
